

Roman Holiday is Celebrating the 80's!

That's right...get out your leg warmers and Aqua Net so we can Rock the Casbah at the 2009 Roman Holiday bash!

We need your totally awesome 80's photos....you don't need a DeLorean for a blast to the past, just dust off those old shoe boxes and find your most righteous 80's photos for inclusion in our themed activities and prized drawings.

Drop them in our 80's shoe box outside the school office or email photos to Amy at wegnerad@cox.net .

Roman Holiday will be held on April 18th, 2009.

This is THE single biggest fundraiser in support of All Saints Catholic School.

Start making your plans now to attend.

Tickets will go on sale soon.

You will also have the option to sponsor your favorite teacher's ticket.

We'll be stocking the bar...and the auction block...on February 6. (more info on reverse)

Please help us make this the best Roman Holiday to date by donating items for the bar and the auction, purchasing tickets, sponsoring a teacher and/or purchasing a corporate table.
