Dear Parent,

I wanted to give an update on the All Saints Cookbook.

We will not be ready for a Mother's Day distribution. To date we have 87 menus (in all categories.) I am in need of at least 200 more recipes in order to even have a cookboook published.

If you have a recipe and don't have time to type on the form, bring to me and I'll make a copy and return the recipe to you. We certainly welcome grandparent recipes as well.

I am hoping for the cookbooks to be available on Back to School Night. At this time there is not a deadline, please bring what you can when you can. The cookbook will be a great legacy to our students who've attended All Saints during the years.

For those of you who have submitted recipes, I greatly appreciate your contribution (s) and participation.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Snodgrass
